

Suite 2000 SPC

Course Mission:

The mission of the Powerway SPC course is to provide the student with the developmental tools and concepts needed to configure the structure of the Powerway SPC product.

Prerequisites:

Keyboard skills and basic Windows® knowledge.

Audience:

Personnel responsible for the design and day-to-day operations of the SPC software.

Course Highlights:

After attending this three-day course, the student will be able to configure all areas of the SPC software, including Locations, Traceability and Products. Attendees will:

- Complete an exercise for analyzing the process
- Receive Hands-on Product Training
- Configure of Users and Groups in Powerway Desktop
- Assign SPC-related Privileges to Users and/or Groups
- Configure products to mirror current data collection for specified company by:
 - Configuring Products (name/number)
 - Configuring Process and process traceability
 - Configuring Locations and location traceability
 - Configuring of Characteristic Groups and Characteristics (Variable & Attribute)
- Learn advanced Features of Characteristic Configuration
- Learn administration of Advanced Options
- Collect Data and its associated traceability
- Analyze current and historical data through charts and reports
- Configure Math Constructions on Characteristics
- Verify process status through Alarms
- Deleting and Copying product configurations
- Complete a final exercise that checks understanding of all functions learned

Course Length:

3 days

CEU's:

2.1

Cost:

$1,275 USD per person

Contact

Email: info@waypointglobal.com

Phone: (317) 624-4037 US/Canada
+52 (442) 196-5280 Mexico